"Top notch! The folks at Throttlenet know their stuff. They keep us updated on the latest information and always respond quickly and kindly to our requests. Highly recommend!"

"Throttlenet doesn't make you jump through hoops just to talk to a technician. Customers are transferred to receive immediate help, which is much appreciated in emergency situations, and every technician is extremely knowledgeable about any computer related situation. Couldn't ask for better service!"

"I was having trouble with space on my computer and the associate that answered my request was knowledgeable and quick at responding and resolving my issue. I am completely satisfied with the quality service I received."

"When on a chat, I can expect to connect with someone within 3 minutes or less. They solve my problem quickly, and if I have any questions, they are quick to follow up. They are also incredibly friendly when they visit the office and always check in to make sure that everything is going okay. I've worked with many IT companies, and ThrottleNet is among the best!"
